

Focus

ESCA's Venue and Management Council consists of venue leaders and leaders from official service providers, working together to address common industry concerns. The council aims to promote goodwill, provide education, and establish harmonious relationships between venues and contractors.

Our Mission

This Council is established to pursue common interests, address common issues and concerns, promote goodwill, provide education, and seek harmonious venue & and contractor relationships.

If anyone requires the support of these authoritative bodies, we strongly encourage you to reach out. This council consists of industry leaders and key players collaborating to make a positive impact on the events industry. The peers on this council can also be called upon to speak at industry events where their expertise can be of value.
